

For Immediate Release:

Rosetta DeBerardinis exhibits at the Washington School of Photography

You are cordially invited to view art works on exhibit by artist, Rosetta DeBerardinis during our "32 Square Foot Gallery Show" opening with a reception during the Bethesda Art Walk on Friday, June 10th from 6 to 9 pm. Seven of the artist's giclee prints, including a limited edition of her signature painting, "Butterflies are Free" and drawings will be on exhibit. DeBerardinis is an established artist in the D.C. area, a Working Artist for Golden Artist Colors, former Bethesda Art Tour Guide, winner of the Liquitex Award, contributor to D.C. Art News and a Resident Artist with Zenith Community Arts Foundation. She is known for her large abstract expressionist paintings exhibited in museums and commercial galleries internationally, which will be on exhibit at the Ratner Museum in Bethesda, Maryland in 2013. She is featured in the recent publication 100 DC Artists by F. Lennox Campello, critic, artist, curator and co-founder of the now closed Fraser Gallery. Concurrently, she will be exhibiting prints in "Cloud 9", June 9th through Aug. 5th at Visual Art Studio in Richmond, VA.
